Dear Fellow Levytes,

It is with a high level of anticipation and excitement that I am writing this morning. I expect that you may be sharing some of the same feelings. On Wednesday, January 23, we extended a call to Bro. Jim Munns to serve as our Minister of Music and he has graciously accepted. For two years, we have had interims and fill-ins and now God has given us someone permanent to lead us in worship and music.

Now, the Personnel Team's work is done and it is time for us, the entire congregation, to pick up the mantle to ensure that our new Minister of Music recognizes and feels the abundant love and warmth that has manifested itself here for 113 years. Try to put yourself in Bro. Jim's "shoes." Even though he has served in many places in many ways, there must still be some anxiety as he anticipates what life will be like in this community of faith. Bro. Jim is eminently qualified but as he begins his work among us, there will be many questions and concerns that will require our help and support. Paul reminds us of our part in that in Romans 12:4-8. What a wonderful time it will be for our church as we work together to welcome, encourage and support Bro. Jim during this transition and far beyond.

Use this new time in the life of our church to make a new commitment to be here and to invite your friends who are seeking a church home to join us in this exciting new adventure in the life of Levy Baptist. Let us also keep an open heart and mind to change, and to commit to pray daily for our church and for Bro. Jim.

As Bro. Jim begins his work in this place, many people will want to be helpful and hospitable. Here are a few things to keep in mind:

Be Patient

He is learning the culture of our church family, which will be different in some ways from other churches where he has served. There are many names to remember – repeat your name and mention family connections.

Be Positive

Avoid talking about what needs fixing in the music department. Mention things you appreciate about our church. Thank him for some way you were specifically touched by music that day. Be considerate of his feelings.

Be Prayerful

The Minister of Music cannot do it all on his own. Pray specifically for his energy and worship preparation. Pray for all leaders ... deacons ... Sunday School teachers ... other church staff.

Be Proactive

Write Bro. Jim a note to welcome him. Ask about things that interest him. Volunteer to be helpful in any way you can.

Watch over Thy children, O Lord, as their days increase; bless and guide them wherever they may be. Strengthen them when they stand; comfort them when discouraged or sorrowful; raise them up if they fall; and in their hearts may Thy peace which passeth understanding abide all the days of their life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
 Amen

8 out of 10 people, if invited to church, and the person who invited them will attend with them, will say yes to coming to church.

Youth Fundraiser
